I. Կարդալ տեքստը և պատասխանել հարցերին՝ ընտրելով ճիշտ տարբերակը:

Read the text and answer the questions choosing the right option.

Japan is an island country in the Pacific Ocean. The climate of the country is hot and humid in the summer and cold in the winter. About two thirds of the entire population lives in Japan's cities. The other one third lives in the rural areas. Japan has a wide variety of natural resources, but their quantity is really very small. So Japan imports most of its minerals as well as large quantities of food and raw materials. Since World War II, Japan has become one of the world's chief industrial and manufacturing countries. It exports products manufactured in the country. However, Japan's amazing economic and industrial growth has brought problems as well as prosperity to the country; industrial pollution and inflation are major problems for Japan today. Respect for learning and tradition and love of beauty are national Japanese characteristics. The Japanese try to combine the best of the Japanese and Western ways of life. The people eat both Japanese and Western food, read Japanese and Western books, listen to both Oriental and Western music. They really enjoy sports and like to take vacation trips both in their own country and abroad.
